

April 24, 2013

To Whom It May Concern:

Brittany Wilkey is a skilled interpreter with wonderful work ethics. She has volunteered and done practicum work in my classroom during the school year of 2012-2013 in Hamilton County Schools. Brittany has interpreted within the classroom for the deaf and hard of hearing, within the general education classrooms, and within the preschool CDC classroom.

Brittany has shown proficient skills for interpreting for the deaf and hard of hearing. She enjoys interpreting and is willing to provide one on one assistance and tutoring to the students. Brittany is enthusiastic and accepting of constructive criticism in order to improve her skills. She is enthusiastic and works well with the elementary students.

I highly recommend Brittany for employment with your company. She has demonstrated an ability to rise to any challenge she must face. Please feel free to contact me via e-mail if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Sarah Samarin".

Sarah Samarin

Teacher for the deaf and hard of hearing

Hamilton County Schools

samarin_s@hcde.org